

CAMBRIAN PUBLIC SCHOOL, KANKE, RANCHI

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Class: IV : English

TERM I (2024-2025)

Sl. No.	Month	Name of the Chapter	Learning Outcomes
1	April	Good and Bad Children (Literature)	Students will be able to make positive choices in their actions and interactions.
		Tall Trees (Literature)	Students will understand the importance and various benefits of trees.
		The Sentence (Grammar)	Students will be able to learn to frame a proper and meaningful sentence.
2	May	Subject and Predicate (Grammar)	Students will be able to identify and write logical sentences.
		A Pot of Poison (Literature)	Students will be able to know the consequences of greed and dishonesty.
		Hansel and Gretel (Literature)	Students will be able to understand the themes of bravery, resourcefulness, and the importance of family.
		The Nouns (Grammar)	Students will be able to identify, classify, and use different types of nouns correctly in sentences.
3	June	Gender (Grammar)	Students will be able to recognize the differences between masculine, feminine, common, and neuter genders in language.
		Kindness to Animals (Literature)	Students will be able to instill compassion and empathy towards animals in students.
		The Love Apples (Literature)	Students will be able to identify differences between right and wrong things.
		Numbers (Grammar)	Students will be able to develop skills to group objects for easier counting and to estimate quantities of uncountable items.
4	July	Articles (Grammar)	Students will be able to learn about basic grammar rules, sentence structure, and develop vocabulary through engaging articles.
		The Happy Prince (Literature)	Students will be able to understand empathy and selflessness through a fairy tale narrative.
		Pronouns (Grammar)	Students will be able to grasp the concept of pronouns, their usage in replacing nouns to avoid repetition, and use them correctly in sentences.
		Adjectives (Grammar)	Students will be able to describe and enhance language through the use of descriptive words.
		Degrees of Comparison (Grammar)	Students will be able to understand concept of comparing adjectives in varying degrees (positive, comparative, and superlative) to describe objects.
		Formal Letter	Students will be able to understand the structure and etiquette of written communication in a professional context.
5	August	Paragraph Writing	Students will be able to develop coherent and structured expression of ideas through written communication.
		Verbs (Grammar)	Students will be able to develop coherent and structured expression of ideas through written communication.
		Adverbs (Grammar)	Students will be able to grasp the function and usage of adverbs to modify verbs, adjectives, or other adverbs in sentences.

Edit with WPS Office

		Conversation Completion	Students will be able to improve dialogue construction and comprehension skills through interactive exercises.
6	September	Comprehension (Unseen Poem and Passage)	Students will be able to develop reading comprehension skills through analyzing and interpreting unfamiliar texts.

TERM II

Sl.No.	Month	Name of the Chapter	Learning Outcomes
7	October	When I was a Child (Literature)	Students will be able to reflect on personal growth and nostalgia through autobiographical storytelling.
		Hellen Keller (Literature)	Students will be able to develop awareness of overcoming adversity and the importance of determination and resilience.
		Can, May, Should, Must (Grammar)	Students will be able to understand the proper usage and understanding of modal verbs in English.
		Conjunction (Grammar)	Students will be able to connect sentences and ideas using appropriate conjunctions.
8	November	Just Do It (Literature)	Students will be able to develop the sense of determination and perseverance in facing challenges.
		A Letter (Literature)	Students will be able to appreciate the value of friendship and the importance of communication through a personal narrative.
		Preposition (Grammar)	Students will be able to understand the prepositions to indicate relationships in space, time, and direction within sentences.
		Punctuation (Grammar)	Students will be able to understand basic punctuation rules to enhance writing clarity and coherence.
		Informal Letter	Students will be able to understand the structure and conventions of friendly correspondence.
9	December	Trees (Literature)	Students will be able to understand importance of trees in the ecosystem and understanding their role in providing oxygen, shelter, and food.
		The Taj Mahal (Literature)	Students will be able to understand cultural awareness and appreciation for historical monuments.
		Interjection (Grammar)	Students will be able to understand grasp the use and importance of interjections in adding emotion and expression to language.
		Paragraph Writing	Students will be able to develop coherent and structured expression of ideas through written communication.
		Picture Composition	Students will be able to enhance descriptive writing skills by creating stories based on visual prompts.
10	January	Laughing Song (Literature)	Students will be able to appreciate the joy of laughter and fostering a positive attitude through poetry.
		Vocabulary (Grammar)	Students will be able to expand vocabulary comprehension and usage skills through various exercises and activities.
11	February	Comprehension (Unseen Poem and Passage)	Students will be able to develop reading comprehension skills through analyzing and interpreting unfamiliar texts.

Edit with WPS Office